The advertisement features a dark blue header with the GreatCQ logo on the left and the text "One line lights up the dual monitors" in large white font. Below this, it says "Compatible win、mac system". A row of icons follows: the Windows logo, the Apple logo, and three icons representing different display modes: "Expand" (two overlapping rectangles), "Extend" (two side-by-side rectangles), and "Copy" (two overlapping rectangles). The main visual shows a laptop on the left and two portable monitors on the right, all displaying a vibrant, abstract, colorful liquid-like pattern. A single cable is shown connecting the laptop to the monitors. At the bottom, a dark blue box contains a "Note:" section with text about power supply requirements for Type-C and HDMI connections.
